Marvin, of Boise, May Help to Trim Pinchot's Plumes

By C. E. ARNEY.

POCATELLO, Ida., Dec. 13.-E. L. Marvin passed through Pocatello yes-terday, on route to Washington, to confer with Secretary of the Interior Bal-linger as to the neceptance of an of-fered appointment as chief of forest reserves within Indian reservations for all the United States.

It is the design of the interior de-partment to take over from the agri-cultural department the supervision of forests within Indian reservations ev

This is understood as the beginning of a system of pruning of Mr. Pinchot by Mr. Ballinger.

The acceptance of this trust by Mr.

Marvin would establish him at Washing ton, D. C.

Mr. Marvin at present resides Boise, but maintains a real estate of-fice in Emmett in partnership with C. B. Steunenberg, a brother of the deeased ex-Governor Steunenberg of from which point he originally repre-sented large lumbering interests, chiefly within the state of Idaho.

As early as 1901 he became associated with the state land department of Idaho and spent several months for them in Washington, checking up the state land grants of the government donated by the enabling act to the state of Idaho in the admission bill.
